Discontinuing the race

If a participant is forced to quit, he or she must without further delay inform the officials at the nearest drinks station. Anyone arriving at a drinks station after its closing time must discontinue the race for his or her own safety (see Drinks stations). Anyone finishing after the set time of 4:00 pm is regarded as having discontinued the race and will not be recorded in the results. The participants are followed by a snow mobile patrol tasked with picking up, and transporting to the nearest drinks station, any skier whose state is not deemed fit to continue. Transportation is available from the drinks stations to the finish for the participants who are forced to discontinue the race
